THERE IS NOTHING AS IMPORTANT AS FAMILY

A Liminal People novel. When Taggart's adopted daughter disappears, he only has one option: find her.

"Like Ursula K. Le Guin and Octavia Butler before him, Jama-Everett has a knack for braiding issues of spirituality and race throughout a compelling fantasy landscape."

— Leilani Clark, KQED

"A scrappy group of people with superpowers who careen through a criminal underground, the space-time continuum, and frequently outrageous battles to rescue a young woman."—Kirkus Reviews

THERE IS MORE TO THE WORLD THAN MEETS THE EYE

A Liminal People novel. A young martial artist finds there is more to the world than she can kick, more than she can see.

"Jama-Everett's book consistently resists easy categorization. . . . highly appealing."— Charles Yu, New York Times Book Review

★ "Rooted in Chabri's voice, the story is spare, fierce, and rich, and readers will care just as much about the delicate, damaged relationship between Chabri and her mother as the threat of world destruction." — Publishers Weekly (starred review)

Translated by Sue Burke
World English

USING THE SWORD,
PEN, BODY, AND VOICE, FOUR
WOMEN CONFRONT
A REBELLION
AND THE OLDER,
STRANGER THREAT
BEHIND IT.

Four women, soldier, scholar, poet, and socialite are caught up on different sides of a violent rebellion. As war erupts and their families are torn apart, they fear they may disappear into the unwritten and longing. . . . Rickett's blend of dark and whimsy is reminiscent of Angela Carter. Perfect for readers looking for something unique, melancholy, and fantastical."

— Booklist

NONE OF THIS HAS EVER HAPPENED.

Faced with the uncanny and the impossible, Rickett's protagonists are as painfully, shockingly, complexly human as the readers who will encounter them.

"Rickett's latest collection contains haunting tales of death, love, and loss. In stories that are imbued with mythology, beasts, and fantastical transformations, Rickett captures the fanciful quality of regret and longing. . . . Rickett's blend of dark and whimsy is reminiscent of Angela Carter. Perfect for readers looking for something unique, melancholy, and fantastical."

ONE DAY A FEW YEARS FROM NOW YOU'LL BE BUSY WITH SOMETHING AND THESE STORIES WILL COME BACK TO YOU.

Here is the whisper in the night, the creak upstairs, that half-remembered ghost story that won't let you sleep, the sound that raises gooseflesh, the wish you'd checked the lock on the door before it got really, really dark. Here are tales of suspense and the supernatural that will chill, amuse, and exhilarate.
